It was further brought out in the objection that the clock wires, which were dead—(dead wires are known as traing wires)—should have been taken out, as they are a constant source of danger in their liability to come in contact with live, wires, and so giving conduit to dangerous currents. It was shown that there is a city ordinance compeling companies to take out these traing wires.

The jury was composed of Messrs. W. W. Morton, C. A. Brown, S. S. Elam, J. G. Gliman, Leon Dettelbach and L. R. Smith.

ADDITIONAL BOND.

White People Will Have to Furnish $4,000 More.

Furnish $4,000 More,

Before Judge R. Carter Scott, of the Circuit Court vesterday, the owners of Fullon Park proved that their loss on account of the park being forced to close,
would exceed $4,000, the bond which was put up by Mr. F. E. Rohleder to cover any loss the owners might suffer if they finally won.

It was decided that an additional bond of $4,000 would be necessary to provide against any loss by the park management, and until June 30th was given to pay the axtra amount, which will make a total bond of $10,000.

The Fulton Park, which began running shout a month ago for the amusement of colored people, aroused the whites of that section and an injunction was granted which forced the closing of the place until the issue could be decided.

THE CONVENTION SCHEDULE RACES

Unique Yachting Events to Be Pulled Off at Jamestown Exposition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., June 23 .- The convention of American Yachtsmen, held at the Hampton Roads Yacht Club, to formulate rules to govern yacht racing at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907, finished its work to-night. A schedule of ished its work to-night. A schedule of races that will require three weeks to sail under favorable weather conditions has been mapped out.

The principal race will be an international cup event for thirty-footers. This will consist of three races, to be sailed on successive days, if possible. Other important races will be the Exposition cup races and the Hampton Roads cup races. The Hampton Roads races will be unique in that they will admit bonts of any type or hull up to forty feet over all.

boats of any type or hull up to forty feet over all.

A resolution was also adopted that a commission of not more than eleven yachtsmen be appointed, to be knows as the Jamestown Exposition Yacht Racing Committee, to arrange and conduct the races. This committee will be selected from the following districts: Massachusetts Bay, Long Island Sound, Graysend Bay, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Hampton Roads, the South Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific coast and the Great Lakes.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, June 23.—Elevators A and B. located at Archer avenue and Wood street, owned by George A. Seaverns, and occupied by J. S. Templeton, grain broker, were destroyed by fire to-day. Both of the buildings were four-atory structures and contained 100,000 bushels of grain. So great was the heat that the adjacent hulldings were destroyed and twenty-five families were diven from their homes. Several explosions, which shook the surrounding buildings, followed soon after the fire was discovered. Spontaneous combustion in the "dust" room is supposed to have been the cause of the fire. The loss to the elevators and their contents is estimated at $350,0000.

Irving was also present, as was Secretary of the Commonwealth as was Secretary of the Commonwealth D. Q. Eggleston.

Presentation Speech.

Dr. H. M. Nash, of Norfolk, who has over twenty years ago, made a graceful presentation speech. His address was as follows: "Mr. President, It has been the custom in the selection of a person to represent th donors, upon such occa-chance the lot has failen to miyselt, who never laid claim to either of these admirable qualities.

"Still in the presence of the man and physician who for so many years has presided over the deliberation of this body, and whose uniform courtesy to lits members has been so marked and appreciated; whose prefessional standing has been so deservedly high, and whose moral character so exalted; who in the stormy times now long past, at the call of his State during the dire stress of internicine war, hesitated not to divert himself of the prerogatives of his calling to assume the garb and to valiantly perform the duties of a military leader, proving his devotion to her cause by the shedding of his blood in her defense, and who was a marked participant in the glory of that ever memorable charge of Pickett men at Gettyshurg; and yet who, when lagging peace ensued, returned quietly, but with no less heroism, to the labor and self-abuegation of his profession, without uttering a breath of a claim to preferment for any sacrifices he had made, who not withstanding the highest professional honors heaped upon him by the free voice of the medical men of his native State, those best qualified to judge of his intrinsic worth, wearing them gracefully and executing those trusts with conspicuous ability, and all without affecting his instinctive modesty and gentlemanly unobtrusiveness.

"Were one deaf he could still perceive the humming of his praises, or dumb, his tongue would irresistibly resound his virtues. I can but feebly express life feelings of this board towards our legace and g feelings of this board towards our Seloved president, but sincerily assuring him that the proffer of this simple gift, is but their faint recognition and acknowledgement of his services to the profession to his people and to his State,

and in presenting it, we wish to express our earnest hope that your years may be prolonged, and that the evening shade may fail gently and serenely upon your brows, eventfully even to the very close of your so well spent a life."

Misses Eubank and Ellis Lead This Week for The Times-Dispatch Outing Trips.

Talk about coupons! It was a regular procession of coupon bearers yesterday from 8 A. M. till noon, when the polls closed, and they are still coming in to count on this week. Something The 50,000 votes were registered yesterday, the 'X" coupons certainly being the favorites. The ordinary dally coupons were, however by no means neglected, thus showing that the good advice given last Bunday bore fruit.

The "X" coupons should be put up in 100 lots in future. This saves a lot of lime. Don't mix up the "X"s with the two-vote coupons. There is the possibility of their being overlooked in the rush.

Few Changes in Position.

There have been very few changes in position among the leaders with the exception that Misses Hubbard and Vaughan have come in the list for the first time and come with a rush that put them in fourth place. If they keep up their present pace they may head the list next week on nearly so. The increase of the two leading couples is simply marvelous atthough the raito of increase is better with the second pair. There is a long gap between the second and third, but the next four are pretty well bunched, while the next ten or twelve are all well in the running. The leaders will have to look to their laurels in the city, and those following after should keep the example of the Misses Hubbard and Vaughan before them and make up their minds to have one of those trips.

The foregoing remarks relate entirely to the city list, which may include a few contestants from the country, who have cmitted to notify us where they live. If that is the case, ladies of the State, please advise the Outing Man. Comment on the positions of the competitors out of town is unnecessary, but any couple wanting a cheap Summer Cuting should find The Times-Dispatch outing contests easy money.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN LABORERS HAVE GLASH

Farmer Threatens to Annihilate Enemy if They Catch Him. One Killed Already. (By Associated Press.)

CINCINNATI, O., June 28.-A special from Clarksburg, W. Vs., says: Trouble has broken out between American and foreign laborers in lumber camps at Tioga, Nicholas county, on the Cranberry river. Hostilities originated over the disriver. Hostilities originated over the displacement by foreigners of Americans occupying good positions. A fight followed, which resulted in the death of one foreigner and the fatal wounding of another. The news quickly spread through the mountains. Camden learned it first, and having had similar experiences with the foreign element one hundred men armed with rifies started across the mountains to aid the Americans. The foreigners, signing the armed men, gave the niarm and nearly an fied to Richwood. The Americans threaten to similarlies any name of foreigners they may see. The mill owners have determined to assist the foreigners.

The Victor of To-Day

The VICTOR has always stood first among Talking Machines. But the VICTOR of yesterday seems incomplete when compared to the perfect, natural and inimitable VICTOR of to-day. Its first place is more secure than ever before.

So complete, so artistic, so musical is the NEW VICTOR that thousands of homes contain no other mu-sical instrument. Still they have, rendered at any hour they wish, the best songs and music to be had. Grand opéra, light vaudeville and the sacred pieces so loved by all are heard from the sensitive throat of the VICTOR.

Let us place one in YOUR home. We will do it at $17.00 and upwards, and let you pay as you wish to. Thousands are providing entertainment for their homes in that way. We are distributing agents for Virginia and North Carolina.

DAUGHTERS WILL HAVE A BUILDING

Meeting of Ways and Means Committee on Saturday to Decide on Representation,

The Committee on Ways and Means re garding representation for the United Dughters of the Confederacy at the Jamestown Exposition begs leave to suggest to the emembers of various chapters and organizations of Daughters throughout the United States that they be prepared at the next general meeting to each contribute fifty cents for the erection of a building on the Jamestown Exposition grounds, to be used by the Daughters during the exposition.
Cards of admission will be issued to those of the Daughters making such a contribution, which will entitle them to the courtesies of the building.

The aubstantial amount to be derived from this small individual contribution will enable the Daughters to erect a building that will not only reflect credit on the organization, but will be a splendid addition to the exposition.

As a business projection, we feel that the Daughters, in responding to our suggestion, will be making a good investment as, after the exposition is over, the building can readily be sold and the proceeds placed in the U. D. C. treasury, to be used in any way the Daughters may decide.
